ORDER

This matter came before the New Jersey Board of Medical Examiners by way of informal discussions between a Committee of the Board and Andrew M. Rodgers, D.C. on February 18, 1982.

The Committee discussed with Andrew M. Rodgers, D.C. his advertisements of his chiropractic services as these advertisements appeared in local newspapers. Having reviewed this advertisement, the Board is willing to resolve this matter through the entry of a cease and desist Order hereby prohibiting Andrew M. Rodgers, D.C. from conduct contrary to N.J.A.C. 13:35-6.13 as follows: first, that public health classes not be allowed in the office but in a public area except for patients of record; second, that Andrew M. Rodgers indicate his designation of D.C. or similar wording in his advertisement; third, that in the advertisement which shows various symptoms, that the word "can" be changed to

"may, fourth, the following suggestions be added to any advertisement: "These complaints may be due to conditions which are not only treatable by chiropractic methods."
